SUMMARY: NIST Handbook 130 covers the registration of servicepersons and service agencies, which promotes uniformity among jurisdictions that provide for or are contemplating the establishment of some type of control over the servicing of commercial weighing and measuring devices.

(3) Registration of Servicepersons and Service Agencies. Any serviceperson or service agency that places a weighing and measuring device into service or restores a device to service shall be registered with the Division of Weights, Measures and Consumer Protection by submitting an application. All registration [applications] fees are due to the division annually [by] on July 1 and are to include a one hundred dollar ($100) registration fee for any service agency and a twenty-five dollar ($25) fee for every serviceperson. No [registration card will be issued to a] serviceperson or service agency [that does not show a calibration certificate evidencing proof that they possess properly calibrated equipment] shall place into service a commercial weighing or measuring device without payment of the annual fee.

(5) Registration Card Expiration. Registration cards shall expire [annually on June 30] two (2) years from the oldest date of calibration on the calibration certificate(s) submitted on the application or submitted for renewal and may be renewed by that date to avoid expiration.

(6) Registration Card Renewal. Any serviceperson or service agency may renew their registration card(s) by [providing the appropriate fee and calibration certificate described in section (3) of this regulation] submitting the service person name(s), registration number(s), and current calibration certificate(s) to the Division of Weights, Measures and Consumer Protection.
